EPSOM, England, Feb. 26,-Mrs Emwine Pankhuret, the militant suffragotto leader, was committed for trial by the Police Magistrate here to-day the charge of inciting persons to commit malicious damage to property. The sourthouse was ablaze with suffragette colors and almost every seat was ocoupled by militant suffragists when the Magistrate took his seat to resume the hearing adjourned from yesterday.

Mrs. Pankhurst, when she was comsitted for trial by the Magistrate, informed him that she would forthwith begin a "hunger strike." She added: "If I am still alive when the Assissa remmence it will be a dying woman who will be tried."

Mrs. Pankhurst did not offer any defence to-day, declaring that she reserved it for the trial at the Assizes.

Mrs. Pankhurst was detained in pris bail not being granted, as she refused to give an undertaking to refrain from political activities pending her trial. Ten wigged and gowned Magistrates

Louis Sandler, twenty-one years old. Ilving at No. 211 East Tenth street, and Jacob Golubon, twenty-four years old and proprietor of a drug store at First avenue and Tenth street, were in the Jefferson Market Police Court to-day charged with assault and robbery. Barnet Lamm of No. 568 Prospect avenue was the complainant.

Lamm met Sandler in a Turkish bath Lamm met Sandler in a Turkish bath

Lamm met Sandler in a Turkish bath Monday night and there played poker with him and two other men. Lamm was several dollars ahead when the game was over. Then he made an appointment to play more and Sandler hired a turnished room at No. 137 East No. 137 East Seventeenth street. The two men, accompanied by Golubon, went to the companied by Golubon, went to the needed to cure the worst backache, room yesterday afternoon and Lamm relieve rheumatic pains, or overcome played in good luck. He won nearly urinary disorders.

In his haste to get away Sandler left his hat and overcoat in the room. He sent a messenger for it later and through the messenger was located by the police and arrested. Golubun was subsequently arrested. Sandler had the missing jew-elry and $3 in his pockets. He said that he took the money and jewelry because he had caught Lamm cheating.
